The Humboldt Library Foundation presents “Inside Washington with Bill Press”

As part our continuing author series, the Humboldt Library Foundation is pleased to present a unique special event: a local fundraiser and appearance with radio talk show host, author, blogger and political commentator Bill Press.

Sponsored in part by KGOE 1480 News/Talk, Bill Press will appear in the new Sequoia Conference Center, 901 Myrtle Avenue, Eureka, at 2PM on Saturday, October 24th. Bill will share his balanced inside view of Washington politics including thoughts on the current political climate and the upcoming 2016 elections. Bill Press can be heard on the radio locally on KGOE.

As the former chair of the California Democratic Party, long time radio talk show host, former political commentator on CNN and MSNBC, blogger for the Huffington Post and Washington DC's nonpartisan newspaper The Hill among many other accomplishments, Bill Press has a unique and personal perspective on who's who and what's what in our nation's capital.

Tickets are $35.00 for adults and $25.00 for seniors and students with one hundred percent of the proceeds directed to the Humboldt Library Foundation to benefit our local library system.

The event will include a book sale of Bill Press titles as well as a book signing.
